

ARCGIS ONLINE – WEB PUBLICATION

TRAINING OBJECTIVES

This course is intended for GIS administrators and users who need to share content on the web and administer their organization's portal. Its purpose is to:

- Understand ArcGIS Online features
- Create users and groups
- Manage access rights
- Add content to ArcGIS Online
- Create and configure map services from ArcGIS Pro
- Create 3D maps and scenes from ArcGIS Pro
- Share your maps in a web app

TARGET AUDIENCE

GIS Administrator, GIS Project Manager, GIS Technician, Geomatics Specialist

PREREQUISITE

Have an advanced level in ArcGIS Pro and database knowledge

Have an ArcGIS Pro license (arx IT does not provide an Esri license for learners)

Coming to training with your own laptop, installed and active Esri licenses

EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES

Digital course material given to the trainee (with concrete cases, practical exercises, technical sheets)

Evaluation questionnaires and certificate of completion of training

DURATION > 2 days

REGISTRATION

Email > formation@arxit.com

Consulting us for accessibility for people with disabilities

PROGRAM

DAY 1

GETTING STARTED WITH ARCGIS ONLINE

Creating a Feature Service from the Beginning

Creating a Feature Service by Importing Data

Data/Service Sharing

Creation and sharing of maps / scenes

Using Data in Maps/Scenes

Creating Web Applications (Exp. Builder)

Data administration in ArcGIS Online

Administering an ArcGIS Online portal

DAY 2

PUBLISHING FROM ARCGIS PRO

Creating and publishing a Feature Service from ArcGIS Pro

Creating and publishing a 3D Feature Service from ArcGIS Pro

Creation & publication of a web map

Replacing or updating a Feature Service from ArcGIS Pro

